Board Hearing Is Marked By Claims Of Public And Private Rights

THE VEHICLES PARKED ABOVE on Ryder st., are on Town property and have been ruled as parked illegally. At the hearing held on Monday night by the Board of Selectmen, the parties involved have again been ordered to remove the illegally parked vehicles. Some of the cars in view, are without plates, it was stated. Users of the street say it often becomes impassable.

A hearing held by the Board of Selectmen on Monday night to discuss parking on right of way on Park Department property commonly called Ryder st., provided a good example of men disagreeing violently.

While the discussion took some heated turns, all tempers were contained as the point of issue, illegal parking, was thoroughly explored.

At the hearing was Thomas J. O'Neill, owner of property on Ryder st., who disputed the order of Town officials that parking will not be allowed on Ryder st.

Complaints had been previously received by Selectman Joseph P. Greeley from residents of the area, stating that vehicles were parked overnight along Ryder st. and were obstructing the way.

The matter was investigated by Town officials and the Police Department with warnings issued to remove the illegally parked vehicles.

It developed that some of the vehicles parked on Ryder st., which is town property, were not even registered.

O'Neill referred to the fact that he had an investment of thousands of dollars and paid

A.H.S. Addition Seen Not Ready

Future enrollment of the Arlington High school may be high enough to necessitate the starting of a "two-platoon" system next fall.

The matter is presently under discussion and study in light of the fact that the addition to the high school is not expected to be ready until Jan. 1, 1965.

Raise For Sup't Is Under Fire

The sub-committee of the Finance Committee met with the School Committee on Monday night to discuss the budget to be presented at the March Town Meeting.

One item which brought about considerable discussion was the proposed pay raise to Supt. of School Dr. Bert Roens and Assistant Supt. Dr. Lawrence Anderson.

The School committee was requested by the sub-committee to reconsider its previous recommendation to raise Dr. Roens' salary $3,000.00 to a total of $20,000.00.

Annual Town Meeting Faces 101 Articles

Planners Ask New Zone 'E'

An article has been inserted in the 1964 Warrant by the Planning Board recommending the establishment of a new zoning district in Arlington to be known as Residence E.

George M. Herlihy, chairman of the Board, stated that the Planning Board has been aware for some time of the need for an intermediate zoning classification which would permit the construction of walk-up apartments in those areas which are neither feasible for the construction of single family and two-family homes nor suitable for elevator apartments.

Action has been delayed, however, until the recommendations of the Comprehensive Plan for Arlington completed early in 1963 could be studied.

The above article, if approved by the Town Meeting, would create a Residence E district in a portion of the Mill Brook Valley presently zoned for business and industrial use.

It would include much of the land from Grove Street to Brattle Street and from Massachusetts Avenue to the railroad tracks. However, the existing business zone ad-

Arlington may have a change in election date.

Among the 101 articles making up the Town Warrant this year, is a request by ten registered voters for a change in the Town Manager Act which would change the day of voting at the annual Town Election to the first Saturday of March instead of the present date set for the first Monday.

The usual pay raise requests are among the outstanding items to be considered by Town Meeting members in March.

Separate raises are requested by town employees, fire and police personnel, and library employees.

An article inserted by the Personnel Board requests a four per cent increase for Town employees, excluding fire, police and library personnel which would total $58,780. A "by-grade" increase in the fire and police departments would total $48,100; and a "by-grade" raise for library personnel would total $7600.

Patrolmen and firefighters would receive a maximum of $3,150. They presently have a maximum of $5,838.

Also included are proposed increases for police sergeant and fire lieutenant from $6,482 to $6,850 fire captains

Possibly, Races Not 'Quiet' - - Few Spots Under Contention

Town Election in Arlington this year might be "quiet", considering the only contested seats are on the Board of Selectmen and the School Board. However, observers feel, either or both contests could produce wide interest.

Two seats are "available" on the Board of Selectmen with incumbent Arthur D. Saul, Jr., seeking re-election and three newcomers are in the running.

Attorney John Balafer, John Kolligan and Attorney Kevin Feeley are launched on vigorous campaigns for one of the seats on the Board of Selectmen.

Three spots are open on the School Committee and four candidates are announced, three of which are incumbents.

Running for re-election are Mary Porteus, Carl Allen and Charles Kent. The one newcomer is Constance Ferrante.

Unopposed for the three-year term on the Board of Assessors is incumbent William Hauser.

Incumbent James Coffey is unopposed for re-election to the Housing Authority.

Selectman Philibert Pellegrini is not seeking re-election.

THE Arl. Hts. Improvement ass'n will meet at the Park Circle Fire Station Jan. 27, at 8 p.m. After election of officers, John W. Walsh of the Park dept. will speak.

National Bank Shows Increase

Karl E. Weiss, president and chairman of the Board of Directors of the Arlington National Bank, announced at the annual meeting of the stockholders and directors that 1963 had been a record year for the bank. Resources totaled $12,541,443, it was announced.

Demand for loans during 1963 continued its upward trend. Loans and discounts totaled $7,540,996 as of Dec. 31, 1963. Commercial deposits were $5,890,873.91 and savings deposits, $4,237,562.76. Total deposits as of Dec. 31, 1963, amounted to $10,847,715.

In reviewing the highlights of 1963, Weiss stated that the bank continued to experience exceptional growth under the supervision of William R. Driscoll, executive vice president.

"The management is aware of the ever-changing technology in the banking industry and is continuously adopting systems and procedures that will enable us to improve our services to our customers and bring about a higher degree of efficiency in our operations," Weiss said.

The stockholders elected to the Board of Directors include Louis T. Boucher, Ed-

Count-Down

No longer can we doubt the fact that cigarette smoking is harmful.

The statistics are too numerous, the sources too authoritative and the evidence too overwhelming to ignore.

Of special concern is the well-known fact that teen-agers and those not even in their teens, are taking up smoking in increasing numbers. These young people must be made aware of the hazard to their health as a result of smoking.

To bring the facts to the attention of adults is one thing. Adults as such, are supposedly capable of making mature decisions. If they decide to continue smoking, this is strictly their business.

If they decide to take their chances with lung cancer, disorders of the heart and circulatory system, chronic bronchitis and emphysema, to mention the definitely established diseases caused by smoking, this is their business. If they decide to shorten their lives, curtail their enjoyment of the years remaining, due to physical impairment, this is their decision alone.

But, have we the right to let our young take these risks? Have we the right to weaken our future generations, our very nation, by letting our young people gradually destroy their own good health?

Good health is a tremendous blessing and we should guard it zealously. Millions are spent yearly to eradicate disease among our population. Tremendous strides have been made in medicine, surgery and research.

Yet, we allow our youngsters to partake of such a destructive habit.

Whatever steps we are able to take toward stopping smoking among the young, whose decisions must still be made for them, we must take.

We have a duty to constantly present these indisputable facts of the harmful effects of smoking to youngsters and warn them of the real dangers involved.

We must support any programs inaugurated on a local, state or national level to educate young people to the fact that smoking does cause disease.

We must remember that while adults are entitled to their own decisions, the young and immature are our charges and their decisions are ours to make.

We participate in other health programs, partake of vaccines and health regulations of our communities. By the same token, we must participate in the safeguarding of the health of our young people with regard to the smoking habit.

To those who have lost loved ones by cancer, the picture is not pretty. The terror is real when the diagnosis is made. And we must be realistic. Smoking does cause cancer.

So we must start now. In terms of our times, the count-down has already started. The damage is being done right now. Ten, nine, eight, --- and so on, right down to the largest zero of all... death.

COLLINS CORNER

All over the Nation, we witness awards for proficiency in sports. Hardly a week passes that we don't read about some dinner being given to an individual, or a group, who have performed on the field of sports.

But, very rarely do we see or attend such affairs for the "forgotten man, or girl" who perform so wonderfully well on the gridiron on the team known as the School Band.

In fact, the only real enthusiasts are the housewives who must suffer through the games, but who are thrilled at half time by the music of the thousands of marching bands throughout the country. Drop into any high school football field during the week, and way up on the gridiron you will see the heroes going through their maneuvers for the big game on Saturday. And, down in an obscure corner, you will find 50 to 60 musicians practicing just as hard for the brief intermission.

In fact, some of their formations are more intricate than the ones the muscle men are rehearsing on the field up yonder.

The game on the week end is advertised as a football game between Arlington High and some Class A opponent, and sport writers and experts write rave notices about the game in their columns. Nothing, however, is ever mentioned about the other big attraction, namely the High School Band.

So, the day of the game arrives and the stalwarts rush on to the field filled with the exhortations of their coaches, and are "raring to go". And, away they do go, and at the end of the half they retire to the dressing rooms for more inside information and more exhortations.

But, way up behind the goal posts stand the other "team" immaculately costumed, well-rehearsed, and they are also "raring" to go. And away they do go, led by a colorful drum major, and pretty majorettes. And for those interested enough to listen they put on a show that is wonderful, both from a musical standpoint and for fine precision marching.

For years, we here in Arlington have watched these fine groups, and each year they seem to improve. As one who saw them this past season many times, it would not be out of place to say this year's outfit was one of the very best.

There are too many associated with these musicians to single out any special person or persons, but, those in charge have done a tremendous job and should be honored by all the teachers and students of the high school. The young fellow who acted as the drum major, John Kendall by name, was a "pro" in every respect. And he was praised in many communities outside of Warren Pierce Field.

And now that we are in the season of the "Best All-around" in many sports, it might interest folks to know that the Band itself picks a "Best All-around". They pick a musician on attendance, musicianship,

That Man About Town

Ever laugh at yourself for instinctively blinking your eyes and ducking your head when an on coming car splashes water and snow on your windshield? Well, don't. If you could train yourself not to, what about another situation when mud might be thrown where there is no glass?

Don't know how we got on such subjects — the New Year's celebrations are long gone — but have you ever been able to sneeze and keep your eyes open? Funny thing. So, don't sneeze (in politics, particularly) if the opponent starts a haymaker.

First to the nomination papers for Selectman is Kevin Feeley. This must be some sort of record as to early filing. This means nothing in itself but does show that he has a rapid, hard hitting organization.

Lots of so-called "workers" volunteer to help and then do nothing. This particular type loves to take the bows, if his candidate wins.

We read in another column that David Leone has decided not to run. So this leaves — so far, in the junket for Selectman — incumbent Arthur Saul, John Bilafer and Feeley.

This three-man set-up for two spots ought to produce plenty of sound and fury. You might as well forget the other Town Offices, unless something happens suddenly.

The battle will be between Bilafer and Feeley because we predict Saul could be an easy winner. We underline "could" because any candidate — no matter how qualified, etc., who doesn't really run for office when competition shows up does not deserve automatic votes. If he is going to be automatic, why should the voter become so?

This will not happen because Mr. Saul is a very, very astute, veteran gentleman in the field of politics and town affairs.

We think Bilafer and Feeley are very fine lads but too young in age for this high office. On the other hand, both are showing surprising maturity in campaign management — maybe so, in town government.

As we see it, Bilafer's problem is to explain his reported present association with Selectman John Bullock; and what, if elected, his future relation will be.

We are not trying to pick on Bilafer but we are and will continue to pick on Bullock for his obvious "conflict of interest" as Selectman.

Bilafer does not have to explain Bullock. Mat knows the latter. But, Bilafer must explain Bilafer — not to us, necessarily, but to the leading and thinking "Man Around Town."

To us, the survival of our present form of government is wrapped up in the Conflict of Interest principal. (The Communists are lousy with it.)

No matter how inadequate or vaguely the law in this Commonwealth was written, the basic thought should not be, cannot be, ignored or (and more important) winked at.

It's not always easy to learn the truth about yourself. But if you look deeply enough, you find the spiritual core of life that was once described to us for all time — "The kingdom of God is within you" (Luke 17:21). There's a one-hour public lecture coming on this subject. Title: "The Priceless Gift of Knowing Oneself," by Theodore Wallack of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Everyone is welcome.

To the editor,

Now I've seen everything. Last week's newspaper announced a study which I later received by mail. The study which is being made by candidate Bilafer covers some key areas of our Town.

We are told that the results of this study will become a part of Bilafer's program. In addition, the study will find its way into the Town Warrant which will be acted upon by the Town Meeting, only a few weeks after the March election.

I wonder if it has occurred to anyone just how unusual this approach really is.

Usually, the office-seeker makes his high-sounding promises up until election day. Then, as the election fire subsides, the promises are mostly forgotten.

Bilafer apparently intends to make sure that his program is not forgotten that it sees the light of day.

Sincerely yours,
Joseph W. Sullivan

spirit, and attitude, and that is just as great an honor as the many national awards given around the nation.

The young lady who received it this year is Ann DeFrancesco, who has played for four years in the band, and is a very accomplished artist in the world of music. So with the above accolade for this fine group, we close with words of the number they played at Gloucester Thanksgiving Day — "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You".

To the Editor:

This week I received a voter opinion poll from Selectman Candidate John Bilafer.

I can't remember any other candidate for Town office ever using a poll to find out what we, the people of Arlington, might be thinking about.

Bilafer's poll is certainly an imaginative approach to the preparation of his program.

More important, it shows a vigorous, active interest in our Town government that is all too often lacking in those who seek office.

Very truly yours,
Emilio H. Catalano

V. DO YOU FEEL THAT ARLINGTON SHOULD INSTITUTE A LONG-TERM PROGRAM FOR FINANCIAL PLANNING?

YES: 71% NO: 29%

The Bilafer Study clearly indicates that Arlington voters are most happy with their library facilities, rubbish collections and snow removal. But the poll statistics and comments combine to show that there is considerable dissatisfaction with traffic conditions at Arlington Center and street parking around shopping areas. Overwhelming support in the Bilafer Study was voiced for measures which would improve town meeting attendance and change Arlington's voting day from Monday to Saturday as a means of improving voter participation in local elections.

ACTION on these voter recommendations has already begun. Proposed legislation has been submitted for town meeting action which would change Arlington's voting day to Saturday. Additional measures, as indicated by the Bilafer Study, will also be proposed for action by town authorities in the near future.

As election day approaches, a plan is underway which will bring John Bilafer's qualifications and program into every Arlington home. Anyone interested in taking an active part in this project is invited to phone Bilafer Campaign Headquarters at Mission 3-4401.

There is only a small amount of industry in this section of the Valley and although zoned for industry, the area is already yielding to apartment house development. Present regulations, however, need to be tightened to insure that new construction will be acceptable and beneficial to the neighborhood.

Regulations recommended in the above article will provide for control of parking, landscaping and recreation areas, planting and buffer strips, and screening. Apartment buildings could not exceed 40 ft. in height, could not contain more than three habitable floors, and to limit density, 1,250 sq. ft. of land would be required for each dwelling unit.

A public hearing is scheduled for February 14.

a lot of tax money. He questioned the reasons of Town officials in concerning themselves with the parking on Ryder st.

When the comments made by O'Neill took a personal turn, Selectman Arthur D. Saul, Jr., interrupted, saying, "We will hear the case on its merits and you will leave individuals out of it."

Selectman Horace H. Homer, in an effort to clarify the issue involved, stated, "The property concerned is Town property. We have consulted with the Town Counsel and established the facts."

O'Neill argued, "I don't care what Town Counsel says. No one has any business to try to stop me."

Some reference was made to taking the matter to the Superior court, over the heads of Town officials.

When O'Neill directed his remarks to Town Manager Edward C. Monahan, the Town Manager replied, "I will investigate any matter that is referred to me and I will establish the facts and report to this Board. Furthermore, I will not be intimidated."

He continued, "The vehicles are on Town property."

O'Neill further argued, "Whether they are on Town property or not, you have no right to interfere."

Selectman Greeley commented, "A junk yard has been started and I will not stand for it. I want them out. We do not legalize junk yards."

Greeley presented photos taken by the Arlington police department showing a number of unregistered cars parked on the street in question.

Selectman Philibert L. Pellegrini, chairman of the Board, requested Joseph A. Purcell, Town Counsel, to present his findings.

Purcell read from official documents to the effect that on a Town lay-out the entire section of Ryder st. to Beck rd. is Town property.

Also taking part in the discussion were Mal Keljikian, 902 Mass. ave., and William J. Prestegjohn, 72 Pine Ridge rd., W. Medford.

An article, inserted at the request of ten registered voters, requests an increase for patrolmen and firefighters to a maximum of $6,300; fire lieutenant and police sergeant to $7,034; fire captain and police lieutenant at $7,787; fire deputy and police captain at $8,704 and police and fire chief at $10,800.

Requests for discontinuance of aerial spraying and the formation of a citizens committee to study pesticides are covered in articles.

There are three separate articles seeking increases in widows' pensions.

The general budget is covered under Article 40.

Funds are requested by the Park Commission for the plans and estimates for construction of an indoor skating rink on Summer st.

Articles 41 and 42 request Park land on Summer st., to be used for housing for the elderly and rezoning of same. Article 43 requests the area known as Fenway Park for the same use.

Articles 93 and 94 are library matters—request for funds to convert the meeting hall at the Dallin branch to a children's reading room; and funds for the renovation of the third floor at the Robbins library.

Telephone Service Grows

During the year of 1963, the town of Arlington had added 874 telephones. This brings the town's total to 25,534 now in service.

More telephones were added throughout the world in 1962 than in any previous year.

Over nine million additional telephones were placed in service, bringing the world's total up to 159,200,000.

The largest previous gain was in 1959 when 8.8 million telephones were installed.

The world figures are included in the 1963 edition of "The World's Telephones" released by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. All figures are as of January 1, 1963, since it takes a year to obtain the data.

At the beginning of 1964, the New England Telephone Company is serving a total of 3,737,000 telephones which is an increase of 135,000. This is about the same increase as experienced in 1962.

Construction expenditures for 1963 amount to $139 million. This is another record and brings the total of the company's expansion and service improvement program for the last ten years to more than $1.1 billion.

Almost 86 per cent of the world's telephones were concentrated in North America and Europe.

At the beginning of 1963, there were five telephones for every 100 persons in the world. This was a slight rise from the 4.9 telephones per 100 persons reported the previous year.

The United States had 43.1 telephones for every 100 persons.

Sweden had 40.3 telephones for every 100 persons and ranked ninth in total telephones with 3,053,752.

The next highest densities were Canada with 33.7 and New Zealand with 33.6 telephones, 6,330,000 after West Germany's 7,047,031. New Zealand had total of 850,572.

Other countries in the top ten of total telephones were Russia an estimated 5,769,200, France, 4,977,797, Italy 4,654,744 and Australia, 2,382,478. Russia's telephones per 100 persons increased to 2.6 from 2.3 a year earlier.

4 Tons Of Snow

Wives are warned that husbands who are unaccustomed to strenuous exercise should be restrained from overexerting themselves shoveling snow.

A reasonable amount of exercise is good for anyone, at any age but with New England's famous winters there are times when extra exertion is required to dig out the car, and keep the paths open.

Medical authorities advocate caution, particularly on the part of men who are unaccustomed to physical exertion, says the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council.

It has been estimated that two tons of snow must be lifted to clear the average driveway, if the snow is light and fluffy. If the snow is wet, the total amount of snow to be shoveled is over four tons.

Snow must be shoveled, but take it easy, urges the Council.

"Shovel a while, then rest a while. Winter is one of New England's most beautiful seasons. Make it a source of pleasure rather than regret."

Work Stoppages Decline In 1963

All measures of strike activity declined in 1963 from 1962 levels, according to preliminary estimates of the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics. For the fourth successive year, strike idleness as a ratio of total time was held to a low level as measured against postwar experience.

Approximately 3,400 stoppages began in 1963. They involved about 1,030,000 workers, the lowest level since 1942. Along with strikes continuing from 1962, including the East Coast longshore and New York newspaper strikes, they resulted in 17.8 million man-days of strike idleness. Comparable figures for 1962 were 3,614 stoppages, 1,230,000 workers involved, and 18.6 million man-days of idleness.

Strike idleness in 1963 accounted for 0.15 percent of estimated total working time in nonfarm establishments (excluding government). The comparable ratios for 1962, 1961, and 1960 were 0.16 percent, 0.14 percent, and 0.17 percent, respectively. For a sustained low level of strike loss, no 4-year peacetime period since the depression matches this record.

The favorable strike record for 1963 is attributable to the small number of large strikes. Only 7 stoppages involving 10,000 workers or more began in 1963, as compared with the previous postwar low of 12 in 1956 and an average of 16 for 1960-62. Including the 2 large strikes continuing from 1962, these major stoppages accounted for only about a tenth of total strike idleness in 1963.

Internal Revenue

On Thursday, Jan. 23, the Boston District office of the Internal Revenue Service, in conjunction with the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, will conduct its 19th annual taxpayer assistance seminar in the auditorium of the Public Works Building from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Each year this Seminar has grown in popularity and it is expected that this year will find it at its peak.

Because of the interest manifested by leaders of business, industry, and professional groups in the many changes in the law occasioned by the Revenue Act of 1962 and effective in 1963, this year's agenda has been arranged with special emphasis on these changes. Travel and entertainment, an item of paramount interest to representatives of business enterprises, will receive special coverage during the Seminar.

Questions from attendees on the subject under discussion will be entertained throughout the program. Upon completion of the days agenda, time permitting, a panel of Revenue Agents will handle questions of general interest.

This seminar is a segment of the information phase of the District's taxpayer assistance program and is open without charge to the general public. Revenue agents, specialists in their respective fields of taxation, under the direction and supervision of Frank Murphy, assistant district director, will participate in the program.

Savings Bonds

Massachusetts sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds in 1963 amounted to $135,862,446, according to an announcement by Francis E. Burke, State Director of the state Savings Bonds Division.

Burke stated that this amount is an increase of $17,156,534 in Massachusetts over the period January through December 1962.

Nationally, U. S. Savings Bonds sales in 1963 were 11 per cent ahead of 1962, and were the highest in seven years.

The total cash value of outstanding bonds of both series achieved a new national record of $47,106 million.

Xavier High Scholarship Exam

The Jesuit Fathers of Xavier High in Concord have announced that the scholarship entrance exam for the freshman class of 1964-65 will be administered on Saturday, Feb. 8, at 9 a.m.

Scholarships valued at $6400.00 will be awarded.

Rev. John R. Vigneau, S.J., principal, has also announced that Xavier will hold its second open house for interested eighth boys and their parents on Saturday, Jan. 25, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Xavier High School joined the four hundred year old tradition of Jesuit education when it opened its door for the first Freshman Class in 1962. With a blend of tradition and newness, Xavier's faculty sets out to achieve the goal of drawing its students toward well-disciplined, responsible young men.

Central in Xavier's estimate of the need of modern youth is the study of languages, dominated by a four year program in English. The student is conducted through a program of studies that will prepare him to speak and write his language with ease and confidence.

As well as his own language, the Xavier student is given three years of training in a modern language, to serve as a tool for study in college and to act as a wedge that will open a new culture to him. To further round his linguistic training, he is expected to study Latin to share, through its literature, the experiences of another civilization and to sharpen his understanding of the structure of language.

As part of a broad, humanistic education for the youth who come under its Faculty's hand, Xavier acknowledges the needs of modern science by use of the most modern methods in mathematics and the sciences. "Modern Math" first confounds and then enlightens all Xavier students, many of whom are using the SMSG approach in their studies. Four years of mathematics are required of all students.

In addition, all students must take an introduction to science and another, more advanced in either Biology, Chemistry or Physics. Those students who manifest greater ability and interest in science are expected to take the CHEM Study approach to Chemistry for three semesters and the PSSC Physics program for the following three semesters.

To further awaken the student to the heritage which he possesses and the responsibilities which he must face, Xavier offers a program in history designed to acquaint him with the past and the methods which historians employ to make it intelligible.

The demanding round of classroom and laboratory study, of homework, and of library reference assignments is tempered by contact with films and guest lecturers which broadens the experience of Xavier students.

And to guide them through the difficulties they will encounter in their preparation for college, as well as to assist them in finding a college which will be suitable to their needs, there is available to them a guidance office whose director has experience with college admissions both on the collegiate and high school levels.

Though Xavier put the serious business of preparing the mind for college studies in first place, a program of inter-scholastic and intramural athletic activities has been organized to give physical well-being and a sense of comradeship to the student.

And for all the students, there are organizations ranging from Dramatics and Debating to Chess.

AHS Hockey Capt. Clarke Shows Class In Medford Tilt

Bill Langone recorded his fifth shutout of the season, and Charlie Toczylowski and Ed Roman contributed a pair of goals each, as Arlington whipped cellar-dwelling Medford, 7 to 0, Saturday.

The win, combined with a Newton-Brookline 1 to 1 tie, moves Arlington one full game out in front of the GBI pack. The amazing Spy Ponders have given up but two goals in seven games, notching 41 themselves.

Defenseman Bob Carr picked up four assists to keep in close contention for G.B.I. scoring honors with 16 points, one short of league leader, Dick Toomey of Newton.

One of the unsung heroes of the afternoon was co-captain Buddy Clarke. Down by three goals in the second period, Medford resorted to stick-swinging and fighting in an obvious attempt to take some of the high-flying Arlington forwards off to the cooler with them and break up the league-leader's attack.

At one point, the game threatened to ignite into a major donnybrook when a Medford defenseman dropped his stick and gloves and charged at Clarke. The classy Arlington forward simply turned his back to the whole thing, — took a few punches on the back as he skated away — and then watched as the astonished Medford blue-liner was marched off to the penalty box alone.

Coach Ed Burns' comment on the affair, "It was one of the finest demonstrations of sportsmanship I have ever seen. It's very easy to retaliate when something like that happens, but Buddy didn't — that's why he's a Captain."

At one time Medford had so many men sitting in the sin-bin that it was hard to tell which was the penalty box and which was the Medford bench. The Burnsmen, without having to play shorthanded, continued to roll up the score.

Dick DiCaprio opened the scoring at 4:18 of the first period when he took a pass from Larry Cappello and drilled a 30 footer high into the net. Ed Roman notched number two for the locals at 9:36 of the first on assists from Toczylowski and Clarke.

With 18 seconds into the second frame Bob Carr sent Clarke in to score on a 10 foot backhand for the only scoring in that period.

Three goals within a minute and a half early in the last period gave Arlington a 6 to 0 lead. Toczylowski started things at 3:21 from Deveau and Carr, then Ed Roman tallied his second of the game assisted by Cappello and DiCaprio at 4:12, and 18 seconds later Toz. scored again this time from Clarke and Carr.

Carr collected his fourth assist at 8:45 of the third, sending in Fred Dolan for the last Arlington score.

Next Saturday noon, Jan. 25, Arlington meets Cambridge Latin at the Boston Arena as the GBI moves into the second half of the season.

MEDFORD GOALIES watch in despair as two Arlington goals settle into the netting.

Lennon Pee Wee Hockey Hi-Scorer

Tom Finnegan, the rangy Hawks' defenseman, scored two goals and assisted on two more to lead the Hawks over the Rockets 5-1. Neil Harrington opened the Hawks scoring with a 40 foot blast from the left side which caught the upper right corner. Finnegan then soloed down the ice, cut across the net and blasted one into the drapes.

A little later, John Madden set Finnegan up from the corner and Tom tucked the puck away. Jim Meadows got his first of the season as he tapped home a feed from Finnegan and Pete Flanagan.

Wayne Campbell scored the fifth marker assisted by Finnegan. Ralph Abruzzi prevented a shut-out when he knocked in John Wanamaker's rebound. Ken Brusgulis came up with some timely stops in the Hawks' net.

Wings 4—Bruins 0
Chuck McCann scored two as the Wings trounced the Bruins 4-0. Wayne Ogden and Bob Kletjian picked up assists on McCann's goals. Tom Blouin tallied the second Wings' goal on a 20 foot sizzler. McCann assisted on the play.

Wayne Ogden finished the scoring after stealing the rubber at the Bruins' end. John Glennon turned several Bruins' thrusts aside with some spectacular stops.

Maroons 4—Leafs 1
The Maroons caught fire in their new shirts and trimmed the Leafs 4-1. Kevin Day scored the first for the Maroons as he tipped in Bernie Quinnan's feed. Bob MacAuley, Billy Thynne and Bernie Quinnan also tallied for the Maroons. MacAuley and Day each earned assists on the goals.

Ken Donnelly had the lone Leafs' goal as he banged in a slap shot from just inside the blue line. Joe DeMita assisted on the goal.

Canadiens 2—Rangers 2

For the best game of the morning the Canucks and Rangers battled to a tie. Johnny Ranamo and Dave Lennon were the scoring aces as they each got two. Ranamo's first was a dandy as he raced the length of the ice and hit the far corner. His second goal was on a smart pass from Jim Audunson.

Dave Lennon, the leading scorer in the league, saved it for the Canucks as he scored in the closing minute after taking a face-off from Kevin Carr. Lennon's first goal was on a high shot from in close. Jim Mansfield set Lennon up on the play.

AHS Frosh Still Unbeaten, Untied

The Arlington High Freshman hockey team extended its unbeaten, untied and unscored upon streak to four games Saturday morning, with a resounding 6 to 0 shutout win over Newton Frosh at the Boston Arena.

Bob Heavren was high man for the Spy Ponders with 2 goals and a pair of assists. Ed Mahoney's charges sprayed the Newton net with 21 shots after going ahead 18 seconds into the game.

John Alessandroni and Heavren took the opening face off, moved the puck into Newton territory and combined passes in front of the net before Alessandroni slammed it home. Later in the first frame, Heavren dug the puck out from behind Newton's net to Shea who made it 2 to 0.

A 50 footer by third-liner Diskin on a solo effort opened scoring in the second period, and it was followed by Heavren's first goal on an assist from Byrne.

Byrne came back moments later to net one for himself on a solo play. Heavren scored his second of the game on a pass from Shea in the Third period to end the rout.

St. Agnes Edges To First Place

The St. Agnes Clippers stayed in close contention for first place in the Northern Division, CYO hockey league, with a resounding 7 to 3 win over Incarnation of Melrose last Sunday.

Bob Kelley notched a pair of goals for the locals in their seventh win against two losses.

Richie Butler sent Bob Dwyer in to score after a two on two rush to open the scoring in the first period. Two minutes later Kelley got his first of the day on a pass from Jim Scannell. The Spyponders made it 3 to 0 on Dick Ronan's goal, set up by Joe Teves.

Incarnation scored first in the second period before Kelley nailed down his second goal on a pretty solo play between the defense. Melrose came right back with two quickies to narrow the gap to 4 to 3, but it's the closest they came.

In the third frame, the Clipper's leading scorer, Jack Curry set up Jim Scannell for the insurance tally, then Dick Connelly and Bill Mc-

Jack Carney, director of the Fidelity House sponsored Art Ross League, announced that the family night plan—a 7 p.m. hockey game followed by one hour of spectator skating before the second game on the double bill at 9:20 p.m.—is becoming very popular and will be continued as a regular part of the Thursday night program.

ATTORNEY GENERAL EDWARD W. BROOKE and Deputy Attorney General Edward T. Martin, after an important conference. Martin is to address the members and guests of the Arlington Council of Churches at their annual dinner meeting, Friday, January 31, in the First Parish church. He will discuss "The Supreme Court Ruling on Prayers and Bible Reading in the Public Schools."

"The Supreme Court Ruling on Prayers and Bible Reading in the Public Schools" will be the subject when Assistant Attorney General Edward T. Martin addresses members and guests of the Arlington Council of Churches at their annual dinner meeting, Jan. 31, in the First Parish Unitarian church. Mr. Martin has degrees at Suffolk Law School and Boston University Law School. He is a member of the Massachusetts Bar, the Federal Bar, the Tax Court of the U.S., the American Bar Association, the Bar Association of the City of Boston and the Middlesex Bar Association. He formerly held positions as Attorney and Controller of well known firms and he is presently Deputy and First Assistant Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In anticipation of this meeting and of the opportunity to question the speaker, an informal survey was made of the views and comments of the members of the executive board. On one point specifically, that this controversial subject should concern every thinking person, there was complete agreement.

Must Respect Ruling

There was a strong but not unanimous feeling about a second point. "Whether or not we agree with the ruling" said a member, "we must respect it. If we would like to change it we must first be sure we really understand it."

John O. Parker, Jr., '66, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Parker, 35 Jason st., was recently elected member-at-large of Bowdoin college's sailing team.

and maybe, in this case, we should be equally sure we really understand prayer."

The last few words helped to stir up strong feelings. Different members of the board seemed to take the question of understanding prayer as a challenge. Some attended prayer groups, others prayed alone. A cross section of a few of their reactions could be good thought starters as the public reviews this again.

For example: "I don't need to understand prayer to know it works," said one. "I know it works too," said another, "but I believe, as religion teaches, that when two or more are gathered together in prayer it is more effective than it is for one. With little children this could make a significant difference."

"Why not make a scientific test?" suggested a third. "Permit some schools to use the old system, others to use the new and compare the students' IQ's and their relative change after a suitable period of time."

"That's a new idea," said a fourth, "but what we are really talking about is the annual dinner meeting and the address and I think we really want to know what steps we as citizens can take to be sure that the children of our town, and of our state, our children, have the best possible opportunity to get all the benefits that God and this great country can give."

Kickoff Rally Set For Feeley

The Kevin P. Feeley workers will gather at "Feeley for Selectman Headquarters," 661 Mass. ave. for a kick-off rally on Tuesday Jan. 28, at 8:30 p.m. Purpose of the rally is to coordinate plans for Attorney Feeley's campaign for selectman in the elections on March 2.

Campaign manager is John R. Kenny, 47 Maynard st. In charge of precinct organization is Ray Keefe, 122 Lake st. Keefe has long been active in Town civic and political affairs.

Chairman of the women's committee for Feeley is Claire O'Neil of 55 Mott st. She has been active in leadership roles for the Arlington Boys' club boosterettes. Included in the ladies' activities, are numerous coffee and tea parties, under the direction of Mrs. Austin Geremonte, 63 Mott st.

Also included in next Tuesday's plans, is discussion of the "Feeley For Selectman Committee Voter Registration" drive. In charge of this program, is Mrs. Charles Ahearn of 262 Florence ave. Her committee is already well under way, in urging Arlington's unregistered voters to exercise their voting right.

Keefe was Arlington coordinator for Senator Edward M. Kennedy in last year's campaign, and Mrs. Ahearn was chairman of the women's division for Senator Kennedy.

Kenny, in announcing the Feeley campaign committee, said: "We're convinced that a candidate for selectman in his first campaign for public office must be thoroughly schooled in the workings of Town government and the needs that he must fulfill in that elective office."

He continued, "Kevin Feeley has related to us many problems that require decisive action in Arlington. Our candidate and his committee will spend these remaining weeks before election, bringing his program before the families of Arlington, and asking the voters of the Town to cast their ballot for Kevin P. Feeley's positive program to benefit our community."

states that there are 2570 students in the high school at present and that another 150 are anticipated in the fall enrollment.

He also stated that at present there is no additional space available in the high school as all rooms are in use.

Dr. Roens is definitely opposed to the "two-platoon" system for two reasons. He particularly is opposed to the possibility of classes being dismissed after dark.

In addition, Dr. Roens states that in his opinion youngsters do not do as well in late classes when they are apt to become tired and restless.

When the matter was discussed at Town Meeting last March, Charles Downs, who was then principal of the high school, commented that two sessions would be necessary unless an addition was available. It was then that the Meeting voted to construct an addition.

At the meeting of the School Committee and subcommittee of the Finance Committee last Monday night, the item of a nurse for afternoon duty brought the comment from Chairman Dr. James Daily that the additional nurse would be needed "because of two platoons."

EDMUND L. CURTIS

Edmund L. Curtis, 81, 27 Drake rd., died Jan. 17.

Funeral services, Jan. 20, were held at the Saville chapel with Rev. Arthur Kerr, associate rector of St. John's Episcopal church, officiating. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Arlington.

First Parish Unitarian Church Plans Renovation Of Interior

Interior renovation of the historic First Parish Unitarian church was authorized by members of the congregation at the annual meeting on Jan. 17.

The parish committee was instructed to proceed with a proposal under the supervision of Ronald Giambro of Design Associates, Boston, for re-plastering, painting, electrical work, carpeting and general carpentry not to exceed a total cost of $311,500.00. Such renovation will complete another major cycle in the building and expansion program commenced in 1953 with the building of the educational wing.

Robert Y. Sharp, church treasurer, announced that the present mortgage had been reduced substantially, and that reserves amounting to $2,500.00 were presently on hand for the renovation costs. A special campaign to defray costs for renovation will soon be announced.

Rev. William W. Lewis, minister, bestowed the "Unitarian Award of the Year" upon Charles Mardigian, retiring chairman of the parish committee, who has completed six years of service.

Reports from officers, committees and organizations were received, and the following officers elected: clerk, Mrs. Donald A. Pettie; treasurer, Robert Y. Sharp; asst. treasurer, Clarence W. Hood; auditor, Ben R. Cole and new members to parish committee, Mrs. John A. Fitzmaur-

Weeklies Exclude Dailies In Vote

Advocate Manager Leonard D. Wood attended the 15th annual winter meeting of the New England Weekly Press Association (NEWPPA) at the Somerset Hotel, Jan. 17-18.

NEWPPA is a professional organization representing more than 160 weekly, community newspapers throughout the six-state region.

At the business meeting, a proposal to change the name of the organization, by dropping the word "weekly", was defeated. The majority of members favored the change, 37 to 28, but a two-thirds vote was required.

The proposed wording in the by-laws would have permitted the admittance of small dailies — where the news coverage and circulation is confined to the local area, rather than state, region, nation and international events.

Wood of the Advocate favored the change. The debate was long and largely unexpected since the directors were unanimously in favor.

Opposition stemmed from those publishers who feel the dailies — no matter how small — exist under a different philosophy, operating techniques and, therefore, provide an unwanted competitive threat and thinking.

One publisher said, "Don't let them (the dailies) get their foot in the door."

Massachusetts Attorney General Edward Brooke, the only Negro to hold such a position in the nation, addressed the delegates, and election of officers was held.

Presiding at the convention was G. Stewart Bennett, publisher of the Manchester (Vt.) Journal. New president is John T. Hough of the Falmouth (Mass.) Enterprise.

Dr. Asa S. Knowles, president of Northeastern University, headquarters for NEWPPA, delivered greetings to the delegates.

CHARLES D. CLEMENTS

Funeral services were held at the D. W. Grannan and Son Funeral home on Jan. 16 for Charles D. Clements, who passed away at the Cushing hospital, Framingham at the age of 78.

Mr. Clements formerly resided at 253 Pleasant st. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Susan Clements and a son Norman D. Clements of Raymond, N. H.

Burial was in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

JOHN F. O'MALLEY IS SHOWN above being congratulated by Middlesex Register of Probate John V. Harvey and Representative John P. Buckley at a reception dinner in his honor. O'Malley is the only Massachusetts candidate running for the office of national president of the Young Democrats. The national convention will be held in Las Vegas, Nevada, the week of Jan. 26. O'Malley is New England Field Representative of the A. F. of L. and C. I. O. Union and campaigned throughout the United States seeking this high office.

Golden Age Club Plans Two Trips

The Golden Age club met in Fellowship hall, Congregational church, Jan. 16.

During the opening exercises, a moment of silence was observed in memory of Emily Smith, who died Jan. 12. She was the wife of Richard Smith, treasurer of the club.

Mrs. Jean Boudet read the thought of the day.

Mrs. Ellen Merrill told of the Woman's club meeting, Jan. 9, when G.A.C. members were guests.

Mrs. John E. Swensen's secretary report was roundly applauded.

William Caudy, club advisor and activities director, outlined future trips to see "The Cardinal" and the Ice Follies.

Walter Jones, v. pres.; John Mansfield, 2nd v. pres.; and Mrs. Merrill sold tickets for the luncheon to be held in Fellowship hall on Feb. 6 at 12:30 p.m. Mr. Jones 79 Park ave., will accept reservation when accompanied by the price of the ticket, 99 cents.

Claudia Peterson was at the piano during the singing of the birthday song. Among those honored was Olive Sheed (in absentia) who was 97 on Jan. 18.

New members greeted were Mrs. Mary Marshall, 131 Winter st.; Mrs. James Fitzgerald, 926 Mass. ave.; Mrs. James J. Kelly, 44 Pineridge rd.; and Mrs. George I. Wall, 7 Bates rd.

Walter Jones, program director, introduced the popular Harmonettes, 13 in number, coached by Hassler L. Einzig, director of Music in the Arlington schools, who sang several songs, deserving the enthusiastic applause received.

Mrs. Thina Fisetto, Frances Walton and Mrs. Henry O. Mills served cakes and coffee. Don't miss the luncheon, Feb. 6, the next meeting date.

Arlington Marine Awarded Meritorious Mast for Recruiting Excellence

Know Your Town Study

As a special service to the residents of Arlington, this paper will feature in this and forthcoming editions, sections of the "Know Your Town" booklet published by the Arlington League of Women Voters.

In view of the approaching Town Meeting and elections, this booklet is a valuable source of information.

The following is the section on "Town Meeting Members Elected."

Every year, on the first Monday in March, the Town's registered voters elect, on a non-partisan basis, Town officials and Town Meeting Members.

By law, Town Meeting Members number as close to 240 as possible.

They are apportioned to a precinct on the number of registered voters in that precinct relative to the total number in Town. One-third are elected each year to serve a three-year term without salary.

To become a candidate for Town Meeting Member, one must be a registered voter and file with the Town Clerk a Town Nomination Paper containing the signatures of at least ten registered voters in the candidate's precinct.

Town Meeting members-at-large are the Moderator, the Town Clerk, the Treasurer, the chairmen of the Boards of Selectmen, Assessors, Personnel, and Planning; the chairmen of the School and Finance Committees and the Town Manager.

BANKING INSTRUCTOR

George L. Horwood, 39 Highland rd., will instruct the course in Bank Letters and Reports, during the second school semester, at the Boston Chapter, American Institute of Banking.

Horwood, a graduate of Boston College has done graduate work at Harvard and Tufts Schools of Education and is a member of the Medford Teachers club and the Massachusetts Teachers association.

He is head of the English Department for the Medford Public Schools.

Woman Marine Gunnery Sergeant Eleanor L. Judge, a Senior Platoon Sergeant with the Woman Recruit Training Battalion at Parris Island, S. C., since March 1962, was awarded a Meritorious Mast on Jan. 2.

GySgt. Judge is the sister of James A. Judge of 15-A Revere st., and a 1946 graduate of Arlington High.

Lt. Colonel Julia E. Hamblin, commanding officer, held the Mast and commended GySgt. Judge for her outstanding performance of duty.

During the Mast the Battalion Commander said, "This award is in recognition of her devotion to duty, excellent military bearing, initiative and professional competence. Such exemplary performance of duty has aided this command in carrying out its assigned mission and makes Sgt. Judge an example for all Marines to follow."

In addition to being commended for her conscientious attitude toward recruit training, GySgt. Judge was lauded for devoting time and effort to counseling members of permanent personnel company, completing numerous special projects, and contributing recommendations which have proved invaluable to the training program.

GySgt. Judge has received orders to attend the personnel administration course here. Upon completion she (Continued on Page 2-B)

Bishop School Children Attend Music Concert

A STUDY IN ATTENTIVENESS are Lisa Jeggelian, Irene Barry, Deborah Jones and Susan Chavarria, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jeggelian, Mr. and Mrs. James Barry, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chavarria. They are shown at the Music Concert. In the rear is Mrs. Charles Conserva, A.I.M. representative from the Bishop School.

The Adventures in Music concerts conducted by Kallman Novak and planned in cooperation with the Arlington School Department are particularly meaningful for the children, because they are consistent in length and content with the attention span of the listeners.

Over their six years in elementary school, if they attend the two concerts offered for their grade level each year, the children can expect to hear musical examples of every period from the 18th century to the present.

The next concert, for grades 1 and 2 is on Feb. 1 at Lexington High. In this concert, members of the audience will hear pieces played by each of the orchestral families so that they may be shown the capacities of the instruments employed; for example, how a variety of color is given to the music.

Arlington school children will attend the concert at 3:15 p.m. Those who did not purchase tickets through the schools may do so at the door.

Many parents, have attended with their children and have found the experience as rewarding for themselves as for their children.

Older children would find the concert enjoyable, but pre-schoolers should not attend.

ZONTA CLUB

USCG Needs Former Pilots

The Commandant has announced that due to the increasingly important role of its aviation arm, there are career openings available as Coast Guard aviators.

Applicants must be graduates of a United States military flight training program (heavier-than-air). They must have served on active duty as commissioned officers in the U. S. Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or reserve components thereof, in the capacity of an aviator pilot for a minimum of two years, and must have military or multi-engine civilian pilot experience within two years of the date of application.

Applicants must be less than 32 years of age and must be able to pass a flight physical, qualifying as a Class, Service Group I aviator (Navy flight physical standards).

Qualified applicants will be offered a reserve commission in a grade not higher than Lieutenant, junior grade, for active duty in the Coast Guard. Date of rank will be the date on which the appointment is tendered. Prior military service is creditable for pay and retirement.

The first year of active duty will be probationary after which those aviators whose service has been satisfactory will be offered active duty contracts for two years. Those who do not integrate will normally be permitted to request two extensions of active duty for two years each following the initial three years, for a total of seven years active duty.

Former military aviators who are interested in and qualified for this program are urged to forward a complete resume of their flight background and experience to the Commandant (PTP-2), U. S. Coast Guard Headquarters, 1300 "E" Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., 20226.

By: William D. Grannan
"Money is a good servant but a bad master."

Money is an excellent servant in that it is our means of obtaining and enjoying the countless material things most of us desire. At our bidding money can do much good in charitable and philanthropic directions. However, if money is allowed to take over our reason and supplant the basic qualities of good with lust and avarice, then money is, indeed, a bad master.

Speaking of money it is a good idea, if not a very pleasant one, to keep in mind that when tragedy strikes your family circle D. W. GRANNAN & SON are prepared to take the burden from shoulders at reasonable cost. At such a time the courteous personnel at D. W. GRANNAN & SON, 375 Massachusetts Avenue, are indispensable.
